Dear Miss McPherson:

We have received your letter relative to the date of notarizing the birth certificate for Ellis Olland Holladay. Inasmuch as the mother wrote January 3, 1941 after her signature on the certificate, that was no doubt the date she was in your office.

We now make photostatic copies of birth records and this date will appear on the certified copy. With your permission, we will change the date of your signature to January 3, 1941.

We will require another fifty cent fee for a new copy of the record.

Please return this letter with the fee.

Very truly yours
